

Unhealthy Hair
See the germs that cluster around and eat at the root of the hair, making dandruff, causing falling hair, finally baldness!

A Healthy Hair.
"A" marks external layer of epidermic sheath. "B" marks the inferior extremity. "C" marks the internal layer. "D" marks the root of the hair.

NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE

Destroys those parasitic germs; and it is the only hair preparation that does. "Destroy the cause, you remove the effect."

Genius.

"Intellectual power, capable of operating independently of tuition and training and marked by an extraordinary faculty for original creation, invention, production or achievement."

[Standard Dictionary.]

Example:

The STEIN-BLOCH Wholesale-Tailored Clothes are the original creations of genius.

That is the reason why

Stein-Bloch Garments

have become famous for their exclusive styles, exquisite tailoring, beautiful finish and perfect fit.

Are you a wearer of Stein-Bloch Clothes?

If you are, you are thoroughly familiar with these important features.

The longer you wear one of the superb suits the more you will realize that it can only be the product of genius combined with the highest grade of scientific manipulation, backed by materials of sterling quality.

They cost a trifle more than ordinary ready-to wear clothing, and about one-half what your tailor would charge for the same identical quality and no better style or fit

Suits and Top Coats, - - $15.00 to $35.00

With the advent of the holly and the preparation of Christmas tokens has also come a cessation of social activity. Santa Claus's coming is the event to which all are looking forward, and the preparation for his reception in his honor will keep everybody on the qui vive until Christmas day arrives.

Theatre parties are already being made up for the Kilohana Art League Dramatic Circle's production to be staged in the opera house the last week in December.

Mrs. Annis Montague Turner entertained Saturday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. C. Montague Cooke, covers being laid for twelve.

Prince and Princess Kalaniana'ole departed yesterday for Kona in the Mauna Loa to be absent from the capital for several weeks. The Prince will rusticate the while and upon his return make preparation for his departure for Washington if a special session of Congress is to be held. Accompanying the Prince and Princess were Mr. and Mrs. A. Mahaula and Curtis P. Iaukea. The latter will remain over for the holidays in Kailua and return to Honolulu in January.

Miss Ryan, secretary for Federal Judge Estee, leaves in the Zealandia for San Francisco to spend the Christmas holidays.

When the pretty opera of Maritana is produced in the opera house on Thursday and Saturday evenings, January 29 and 31, Honolulu will have a musical treat. Beautifully costumed, with scenery in thorough keeping, and with principals and chorus among the best vocalists in the city, the opera is sure to attract much attention. The rehearsals indicate that the choruses will be rendered in a manner which will do credit even to a professional organization. The principals are: Mrs. Annis Montague Turner, as Maritana; Don Caesar, Mr. Charles Elston; Lazarillo, Mrs. Charles Elston; King of Spain,

Mr. Ernest Ross; Don Jose, Mr. J. Lovette Rockwell; Captain of the Guard, Mr. Hugo Herzer. Among those in the chorus are Miss Alice Campbell, Miss Dickson, Miss Love, and Miss Severson. "Sonny" Cunha is contributing valuable assistance at the piano during the rehearsals. The costumes have already been ordered from the East. Mrs. Turner saved the organization much expense by having the orchestration on hand. The production of Maritana will probably result in the organization of the Honolulu Operatic Company which will give other operas probably once in six months.

Mrs. J. Alexander Yoell of San Jose arrived lately and will spend the winter here with her daughter, Mrs. Miles W. Parkhurst.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur M. Brown of San Francisco returned to the mainland last night by the Peru after a visit of three weeks on the islands. They visited Hawaii and the volcano.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Kimball will return to the city Monday from their honeymoon at Mokuleia and will occupy a cottage in the King premises on Piikoi street.

Misses Bertha and May Young will visit Honolulu in January and spend several months here. They will be present at the ceremony of opening of the Young building.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Hawes gave a dinner on Thursday evening in honor of Mrs. Eleanor Dole.

Mrs. Hatch, from Honolulu, is in San Francisco, having arrived on Wednesday last, says the San Francisco Bulletin. Mrs. Hatch is the daughter of Col. and Mrs. Horace Hawes, and is one of the most prominent women in Honolulu.

The fad of fashion is the chains—chains are simply a craze—from the exquisite ropes of pearls worn with the evening dress to the simplest beads—everything is in style. Gold chains are many, some are plain, but for the most part are set with gems. Watches are again worn with the long, old-fashioned chains—bags also; anything, everything. You can make no mistake if it is a chain.

The palatial residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Irwin, at Washington and Laguna streets, was the scene of a pretty dinner dance last evening in honor of Miss Edith Huntington, says the Call of December 3. It was a white dinner. The table was elaborately decorated with bride roses. In the drawing-rooms and ballroom foliage and cut flowers were arranged in excellent taste. The guests were delightfully entertained. Among those present were Miss Spreckels, Miss Lily Spreckels, Miss Pearl Landers, Miss Linda Cadwallader, Miss Ethyl Hager, Miss Marion Scott, Miss Ruth Allen, Miss Elena Robinson, Miss Lucie King, Messrs. Warfield, Grace, Costigan, Joe Tobin, Edwin Tobin, Knox Maddox, R. McKee Duperu, Dr. Harry Tevis and E. M. Bee.

The Kilohana Art League, assisted by a number of local artists, will give a notable performance at the Opera House on the evening of December 30. The program will include two sketches, "In Honor Bound," and "My Turn Next," after which will be given the Sextette from "Florodora." The names of those who will take part are withheld.

Miss Margaret Copeland, who has been visiting Mrs. Helen Wilder Craft for several months, departed for San Francisco last night in the Peru.

The wedding of Miss Sara Robertson and Mr. James Dougherty will take place in the early part of the coming year, probably about February.

Mrs. Robert R. Hind announces the marriage of her daughter Eleanor Margaret to Mr. Frank Charles Scherstein, on Wednesday, December 3, at San Francisco.

Miss Coman of Wellesley College has attended many reunions of former Wellesley pupils during her short stay in Honolulu. Saturday evening at the residence of Mrs. James Hopper a reception was given in her honor. A group of Wellesleyians greeted the guests and the Wellesley yell was often heard. The residence was charmingly decorated and the college colors were quite conspicuous. Miss Coman departed last evening in the Peru for the coast.

X-mas Novelties, Toys and Games

Christmas for the children means toys—Christmas without toys is a very dull Christmas indeed. If you don't think so, just watch the youngsters flatten their noses against our window panes, gazing in wonder at the marvelous toys within and the great doll exhibit. Toys are far below par this year. We have too many and are selling them at any price. We want you to see our stock and price them. Everybody who prices them expresses surprise—so will you.
